With wonderful views to the front and rear, Ketchum boasts an extremely appealing exterior aesthetic. Additionally, it offers the advantage of splendid countryside views from both aspects.

Upon entering Ketchum, what immediately strikes you is the welcoming sense of space and light. The wide entrance hall and double-height atrium draw you through to the kitchen/dining room at the rear of the house. Full-width bi-folding doors flood the room with natural light, creating a free-flowing living space ideal for warm sunny days or balmy summer nights. There is also a separate sitting room with a vaulted ceiling and a contemporary log burner in the corner - perfect for cosying up after a windswept winter walk along Brancaster Beach.

Upstairs, there are four bedrooms, the principal bedroom featuring an en-suite shower room. The other three bedrooms share a family bathroom, and from upstairs, you can truly appreciate those magnificent far-reaching views.

Outside, to the rear side, there is a separate brick garage, while ample gravel parking for three cars and a boat is available at the front. The rear garden is patioed directly off the kitchen/dining room, with the rest facing west and offering a very private, enclosed space - ideal for both two-legged and four-legged little ones to enjoy the fresh Norfolk country air to the fullest.

Ketchum was designed and built by the incredibly well-regarded local developers, Grocott and Murfit. This company's name is synonymous with attention to detail and quality of finish, and this house is a perfect example of their craftsmanship.

Breathtaking views from every angle - inside and out.

A home where light,
space, and countryside
views come together beautifully.

Syderstone

COMMUNITY SPIRIT IN THE NORFOLK COUNTRYSIDE

Being only nine miles from the north Norfolk coast, Syderstone is well-known for its nature reserve and country walks. There is also St Mary's - a 900 year old round-towered church.

The nearest pub is the recently refurbished gastro pub, The Ostrich, in next door village of South Creake. Burnham Market and Fakenham, both have a wide variety of shops and facilities, and are only a short drive away.

Main line trains to London Kings Cross run from King's Lynn. Golf courses are to be found at Brancaster, Hunstanton and Fakenham.

Within easy reach of the sea, Fakenham is top of the list when it comes to market towns. While sandy beaches are just ten miles away, Fakenham is perfectly positioned halfway between King's Lynn and Norwich with easy reach to Holt and Swaffham, making for an easy commute.

Out of working hours, there's plenty to keep you entertained including the thriving independent Central Cinema, a perennial favourite with locals. Enjoy a fun glass-blowing session with the kids at Langham Glass, reconnect with nature at Pensthorpe or blow the cobwebs with a walk at nearby Sculthorpe Moor.

For something fancier, dress up to the nines and enjoy a day out and a flutter at Fakenham Racecourse, or team up with your playing pals for a round at Fakenham Golf Club, set in and around the racecourse. And Thursford is just four miles away with its magnificent collection of steam engines and organs - a visit to its Christmas spectacular gives a West End theatre excursion a run for its money.
