Built to an exacting standard in 2014 by respected local developer Bullock Homes, this elegant detached residence presents a rare opportunity to enjoy both refined living and a close connection to the North Norfolk coast. Positioned on the edge of the charming village of Ringstead, just two miles from the sea, this home blends timeless architecture with the ease of modern design.

Behind its handsome brick and chalk façade lies a beautifully balanced interior, thoughtfully arranged to accommodate both relaxed family life and effortless entertaining. The reception hall, with flagstone flooring and underfloor heating, sets a welcoming tone from the outset. From here, the flow of the ground floor leads into a superb kitchen/dining room, the true heart of the home. Oak-fronted cabinetry, granite worktops and a central island provide a warm and practical setting, while bi-fold doors open directly onto the garden, creating a seamless indoor-outdoor living experience.

The adjoining utility room offers additional storage and workspace, while the generous sitting room is a particularly inviting space, complete with a stone fireplace and a wood-burning stove. A separate study adds flexibility, ideal for home working or quiet reading.

Upstairs, the accommodation continues to impress. The principal bedroom enjoys glorious, uninterrupted countryside views and is served by a stylish en-suite shower room. Three further double bedrooms, all with fitted wardrobes, provide excellent space for family and guests. A well-appointed family bathroom completes the first floor, combining functionality with elegant finishes.

Flagstone floors, a wood-burning stove, and hand-finished joinery speak to a sense of tradition, beautifully reimagined for modern life.

Externally, the property is framed by attractive boundary walls of traditional chalk and brick, enhancing its sense of character and privacy. A gravel driveway and turning circle provide ample parking and lead to a detached double garage.

The gardens have been thoughtfully landscaped to offer year-round enjoyment. A broad stone terrace runs along the rear of the house, perfectly positioned for al fresco dining, with lawns, established beds and mature planting creating a tranquil and manageable outdoor space.

Located just a short walk from Ringstead's much-loved Gin Trap Inn, the village shop, and local garden nurseries, the property offers the best of both worlds – peaceful rural living with excellent amenities close by. For those who value nature and open space, the surrounding area offers endless opportunities for walking, cycling and exploring, with quiet lanes and coastal paths just moments away.

Homes built by Bullock Homes are widely recognised for their quality, and this one is no exception. Classic materials, generous proportions and a clear sense of craftsmanship underpin every room, offering a property that feels both established and effortlessly contemporary.

Whether as a full-time residence or a country escape, this is a home that offers lasting quality in a location where coast, countryside and community are all close at hand.

If we had to describe the house in three words, it would be: full of light. That's what makes it feel so uplifting to come home to, every day.
