A truly magnificent home, Hill House has been meticulously remodelled and beautifully reimagined to an exceptional standard. While its exterior still celebrates the striking original architecture - ornate brickwork, a castellated turret and elegant chimneys - the interiors offer something entirely captivating.

The ground floor has a seamless flow of contemporary living space. The reception hall sets the tone for what lies ahead, with its polished resin floor drawing you gracefully towards the raised dining area. Here, a floating wood-burning stove creates a sculptural centrepiece, perfectly framed by superb views across the grounds.

The sitting room is a wonderful place to unwind, complete with an open fire and exquisite herringbone flooring. Crittall doors and windows allow the flexibility to create intimate rooms or open-plan living, all while inviting natural light to pour through the house.

The kitchen is reminiscent of an opulent boutique bar, centred around a curved L-shaped island that makes a bold design statement. By day it is a bright, stylish hub; by night, as the lights soften and music plays, it transforms into an effortlessly elegant entertaining space. There is room for informal dining as well as relaxed seating - all positioned to make the most of the far-reaching views.

During the warmer months, three sets of glazed doors open directly onto the terrace, creating a wonderful indoor-outdoor flow. It is the perfect setting for gatherings overlooking the River Yare and the surrounding countryside.

Also on this level is a well-appointed study, a cloakroom, and a striking cellar with a glass hydraulic lid. A staircase leads down to a fitted boot room and laundry with external access - ideal for returning from long walks across the grounds.

We've completely renovated the house and gardens - it's unique, spectacular, and characterful...

The polished oak staircase rises to a generous, light-filled landing where you will find four beautifully presented bedrooms, each enjoying superb views. Three feature modern en-suites, complemented by a luxurious family bathroom.

The principal suite is the true showstopper. A vaulted ceiling and floor-to-ceiling glazing open onto a Juliet balcony that perfectly frames the sweeping landscape beyond. A sumptuous bath and shower room completes this remarkable sanctuary.

The top floor houses an imaginative attic suite, offering two charming bedrooms and a shower room - ideal for guests, teenagers or as a peaceful retreat.

Outside, Hill House is approached through brick gate pillars and wrought iron electric gates, opening onto a tree-lined gravel driveway. In the evening, the illuminated trees create a dramatic and inviting sense of arrival. There is ample parking to both the front and rear.

The grounds extend to approximately seven acres (STMS). Set high on the hill, they offer breath-taking views, sweeping lawns, established woodland, a heated outdoor swimming pool with pool house and terrace, and a selection of useful outbuildings. Planning permission has been granted for two beautiful, glass influenced renovations to the pool house and the stables.

Meandering steps lead down to the river, where 68 metres of quay heading and a superb summer house provide the perfect place to escape and watch the wildlife drifting along the water's edge.

Across the River Yare lies a private parcel of riverbank - an idyllic spot for a quiet picnic or moments of complete solitude.

Whilst every attempt has been made to ensure the accuracy of the floor plan contained here, measurements of doors, windows, rooms and any other items are approximate and no responsibility is taken for any error, omission, or mis-statement.
